

Everything was mostly normal for the 10 year old Charlie Herbert until 9:59...

Ding Ding Ding Ding Ding Ding Ding Ding witch ment it was time for school. But something was different about school. It was bring your pet to school day so he brought his Golden Retriever Spark.

Spark was biting his leash when Charlie looked down but then Charlie remembered that he had to be in his classroom so he started running.

When he got into the classroom the teacher Mrs. Ryans was giving instructions.

Mrs. Ryans said “at 8:15 we will go outside and play with our pets then at 8:30 all the dogs will race around the track by the football field. We have barriers set up around the track so they can only go one way”.

When they got outside Charlie played tug a war with spark for five minutes. Then they played fetch for five minutes. After that Charlie and Spike went on a walk around the playground with Charlie's best friend Frederick and his dog Joe.

When they got back it was time for the dog race. The football field was pretty far so when they got there Mrs. Ryans decided to give the dogs a fifteen minute break. All Charlie did during the break was give spike some water.

After the break was over they put the dogs on the track. The track was a normal track but they put barriers on the side so the dogs can't get off the track. They also have barriers on the start and finish line before the race starts the dogs are in a small rectangle. When Mrs Ryans says go she will lift the barriers on the starting line and they have treats at the finish lines so the dogs would actually run.

Finally Mrs. Ryans said “3. 2. 1. Go” and lifted the barrier. The race started out slow, most dogs tried to go the other way but noticed that they could get the treat going the right way so they went the right way. Spark was the first to notice that and he won.

When they got back to the classroom it was 9:20 and Mrs. Ryans decided everyone needed a break so she said “now until ten we will be reading to our pets”.

At 9:59 Mrs. Ryan's walkie talkie started talking” it said in a static voice “a criminal has entered the building” then there was a bang coming from the walkie talkie. The humans new what to do but i wouldn't say the dogs knew what to do. Every dog was howling and in the background they could hear more gunshots. “Bang” “Bang”. Then everyone started screaming but in every classroom so Charlie's classroom wasn't the first to be invaded by the outlaw but the time came.

Finally one of Charlie's classmates, Jake ran out of the classroom only to be shot by the criminal and leading the outlaw towards their classroom.

The killer tried to open the door but Mrs. Ryans locked it when Jake ran out the door so the outlaw shot the lock and got in the classroom.

The killer shot one of Charlie's classmates then something great happened. Spark ran up to the outlaw and bit his ankle the outlaw fell to the ground and dropped his pistol spark jumped on top of the outlaw, the outlaw tried to grab another pistol but spark bit his hand meanwhile charlie grabbed the pistol the outlaw had dropped earlier and said “Spark get out of the way” and he did so then charlie shot the killer.

The killer killed many but Charlie had survived.
